This is a summary of how our school delivers music education to all our pupils across three areas – curriculum music, co-curricular provision and musical experiences – and what changes we are planning in future years. This information is to help pupils and parents or carers understand what our school offers and who we work with to support our pupils' music education.

Part A: Curriculum music

This is about what we teach in lesson time, how much time is spent teaching music and any music qualifications or awards that pupils can achieve.

Cardinham School follows the 'Sing Up' music curriculum.

Sing Up Music provides primary schools with the foundation to deliver a creative programme of high-quality classroom music activity. Designed and written by subject specialists, it sets out the skills, knowledge, and understanding to be gained by all pupils at each stage of learning, including the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Sing Up's music curriculum, with a scheme of work for each year group from Nursery to Year 6, represents a complete and progressive library of resources that meets the requirements of the Statutory Framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage (Expressive Arts), the National Curriculum for Music and suggested approaches of the Model Music Curriculum (Singing, Listening, Composing, Performance/Instrumental Performance).

Covering a broad and diverse range of repertoire, approaches, and musical traditions, Sing Up Music supports a fully-integrated approach to musical development, connecting the interrelated strands of singing, playing, improvising, composing, listening, and appraising.

With long-term and detailed lesson-by-lesson planning, plus classroom-ready presentations and all music teaching materials included, Sing Up Music has been created for all primary teachers – generalist and specialist teachers of music.

Part B: Co-curricular music

This is about opportunities for pupils to sing and play music, outside of lesson time, including choirs, ensembles and bands, and how pupils can make progress in music beyond the core curriculum.

Children at Cardinham School have many opportunities to learn about music and a variety of instruments during their time with us.

There are peripatetic lessons available to all (at a cost). Children with a pupil premium status can have free or financially subsidised lessons.

As children move into Key Stage 2, they learn how to play recorders and violins with their class teacher and ukuleles with the Cornwall Music Services through a scheme called 'First Access.

Part C: Musical experiences

This is about all the other musical events and opportunities that we organise, such as singing in assembly, concerts and shows, and trips to professional concerts.

All children enjoy a singing assembly every Thursday in school. All children have an opportunity to join the school choir, performing in concerts at school, in the community or with other local schools at exciting venues e.g. The Hall for Cornwall.

All of our children have the opportunity to perform solo or with their classmates during Christmas shows or class assemblies. Additionally, they perform at Harvest time in the Autumn, St Piran's Day in the Spring and at our production in the Summer Term.

In the future

This is about what the school is planning for subsequent years.

Next steps:

- Embed the curriculum.
- More effectively measure the impact of our music curriculum.
- Increase number of children taking part in peripatetic lessons.

Further information (optional)

ASONE Perform CIC became the lead organisation for the music hub in Cornwall. The ASONE Hub is a partnership of local and regional organisations working together to support the music education of young people in Cornwall. The Hub leads on the strategic development of music education locally and works with a variety of organisations and individuals to meet local needs. We are constantly striving to ensure that we reach all children and young people, regardless of age, location or interests:
